A. Whenever any dog is impounded under the authority of this chapter, a written notice shall be sent to the owner or custodian of such dog if such owner or custodian is known. Such owner or custodian shall have three (3) days after the mailing of such notice to reclaim the dog, and, if he fails to do so within such time and/or fails to pay the fees provided herein, such dog shall be sold or humanely disposed of at the expiration of such period. If the dog owner is unable to reclaim the dog within three (3) days, he may notify the animal control office to retain that dog for up two (2) additional days, provided the owner pays all impounding fees in advance, at which time the officer will then instruct the pound to hold the dog up to a total of five (5) days.

B. Any dog impounded for having bitten any person shall not be released until the expiration of a ten (10) day period to allow an appropriate check for rabies. Provided, however, if a dog is picked up, and the dog has a valid current license tag indicating the owner of the dog, prior to taking the dog to any holding facility outside the county, a reasonable opportunity shall be afforded to the owner to pick up the dog by paying whatever impoundment costs, fees or penalties imposed by this chapter; and provided further, that this provision shall not apply to second or repeated offenses in any one year.

C. Whenever a dog is impounded and the owner or custodian thereof is unknown, a notice shall forthwith be posted in a conspicuous place on bulletin boards at the North Bonneville City Hall. The notice shall contain a general description of the impounded dog, showing the probable breed, sex, color and markings, and shall designate the date and place where the dog was picked up and the date and place where the described dog shall be sold or otherwise disposed of unless sooner claimed and redeemed. Such date shall be not less than three (3) days after impounding of the dog.

D. If no claim or redemption by the owner or custodian of the described dog is made within the time fixed by notice, the dog shall be sold or humanely disposed of at the expiration of such period. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999; Ord. 593 § 9(A), 1987)

6.04.210 Impoundment--Redemption fees and charges.

A. A basic redemption fee of forty-five dollars ($45.00) per animal per impounding;

B. The dog's board bill for the time he has been impounded at the rate authorized by resolution of the city council from time to time, based on an analysis of actual costs;

C. For a second and/or subsequent impounding of the same dog, belonging to the same person, in addition to the basic redemption fee of one hundred ($100.00) dollars, an additional fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) shall be added, so that on a second impounding, the redemption fee shall be one hundred twenty dollars ($120.00), on a third impounding, the redemption fee shall be one hundred forty dollars ($140.00), and so on;

D. The license fee as fixed in this chapter if the dog has not theretofore been licensed for the current year. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999; Ord. 746 (part), 1998; Ord. 593 § 9(B), 1987)

6.04.230 Impounded dogs--Hearing-- Effect of judgment.

In all cases where the owner or custodian of any impounded dog shall file with the Skamania County animal control office, a written notice or demand for hearing before the expiration of the time herein provided for disposing of a dog, the owner or custodian shall be entitled to a hearing before the municipal court judge upon the question of the rightful impounding of such dog. Upon receipt of such notice, the Skamania County animal control officer shall forward the demand or notice forthwith to the municipal court judge, who shall proceed to a trial of the question of the right to impound the dog under the terms of this chapter and, upon the completion of the hearing, shall enter judgment sustaining an impounding or directing the release of the impounded dog, as the evidence submitted warrants. Upon entry of judgment sustaining an impounding, the dog shall be sold or disposed of in the manner herein provided unless the owner or custodian shall redeem the dog. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999; Ord. 593 § 9(d), 1987)

6.04.240 Impoundment--Interference.

It shall be unlawful for any person to interfere in any way with any police officer, deputy sheriff or other person employed to act as a dog catcher who is engaged in seizing or impounding any dog under authority of this chapter. Any person found guilty of interfering with the lawful seizure or impoundment of any dog under authority of this chapter shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) and imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999; Ord. 593 § 10, 1987)

6.04.250 Right of self-help.

This chapter shall not effect the rights of property owners or others to use self-help for the protection of their property, domestic animals or persons, which they now have by virtue of state law; it being the intent of the City Council of the City of North Bonneville that this chapter be cumulative rather than in limitation of said rights. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999; Ord. 593 § 12, 1987)

6.04.255 Penalty clause.

In addition to any other penalties provided by any other provisions contained in this chapter, the violation of any section of this chapter shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a civil fine of up to one hundred dollars ($100.00). This penalty shall be in addition to all other penalties and shall apply to the violation of any provisions in this chapter for which no other penalty is specifically provided. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999)

6.04.260 Savings clause.

In the event that any section of this chapter is found by any court of competent jurisdiction to have been illegally adopted, or illegal in its application by any individual, it shall be disregarded by the court and the balance of this chapter shall remain in full force and effect. Nothing herein is intended to affect state laws with regard to dangerous animals, including dangerous dogs. (Ord. 774 (part), 1999)
