City Council Duties and Compensation

The City of North Bonneville operates under a Mayor – Council form of government. The North Bonneville City Council is a five-member Council serving as the legislative body of the City. The City Council provides governmental, recreational, educational, cultural and social services and opportunities for citizens. Their legislative powers include the enactment of ordinances and resolutions.

The City Council also has the authority to impose taxes, enact the annual city operating budget, enter into contracts, including grant application agreements, approve monthly expenditures, approve claims against the City, grant franchises for the use of public ways and regulate the acquisition, sale, ownership and disposition of property.

Councilmembers also define the powers, functions and duties of City officers and employees and fix compensation for all employees. Council members also establish working conditions for employees, including approval of benefits such as insurance, retirement and pension programs.

The City Council hears recommendations made by the Planning Commission and makes final decisions regarding subdivisions, short plats, comprehensive planning and zoning issues.

On an annual basis, members of the City Council appoint one of the Councilmembers to serve in the Mayor's absence, as Mayor Pro Tempore.

Councilmembers also serve on a variety of community-wide boards, committees and commissions along with other public officials to help direct public policy.

The duties of a Councilmember will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 10 – 20 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities. Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Councilmember duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required at regular City Council meetings which are held on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month. Meetings begin at 7:00 PM and can run up to 9:00 PM and occasionally later. From time to time, the Council or Mayor may call special Council meetings to handle City business. Attendance is also required at Council retreats.
- Councilmembers are expected to attend Workshop meetings as well.

Councilmembers will be paid $25 per meeting.

Interview Questions

Each candidate selected for an interview should come to the interview prepared to speak to the following questions:

1. Why do you want to serve on the City Council?
2. What experiences, talents or skills do you bring to the Council and community that you would like to highlight?
3. Are there any regional issues or forums in which you have a particular interest or expertise? (e.g. transportation, water supply, human services, water quality, fiscal management, parks and open spaces, etc.)
4. Do you want to serve on the City Council because of a particular local issue on which you want to work, or are your interests more broadly distributed?

The Council may ask additional questions of candidates during the interview.
